Dakota Gold Corp. Publishes Inaugural ESG Report

LEAD, SOUTH DAKOTA – Dakota Gold Corp. (NYSE American: DC) (“Dakota Gold” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has published its inaugural comprehensive Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) Report for 2021 detailing the Company’s philosophy, approach, and commitment to deliver leading industry practices as we advance mineral exploration in the Homestake District of South Dakota.

The Dakota Gold 2021 ESG Report has been posted on the Dakota Gold website at www.dakotagoldcorp.com.

Stephen O’Rourke, Co-Chairman of Dakota Gold, commented, “As a local South Dakota company, operating within an ESG framework isn’t just part of our business, it is a natural extension of our culture and values. We hope this report demonstrates that sustainable development is an integral part of the Company, and that we factor climate change, ESG considerations, and the wellness of our employees and communities into everything we do, from conception to completion.”

In his message addressing the community, President, Chief Executive Officer and Director, Jonathan Awde, notes that Dakota Gold aims to work with its partners, host communities and employees to achieve sustainability objectives.

“From the outset, Dakota Gold’s leadership has demonstrated its steadfast commitment to employing exploration and management techniques that will minimize and mitigate impacts to the environment in which we operate; and to conduct our operations in a manner that strengthens our communities and supports local prosperity.”
